

2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium Attendee Policies

Special Assistance

The Symposium co-sponsors and the San Francisco Marriott comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you require special assistance, please contact the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium Registration and Housing Center at guhousing@jspargo.com

Important Security and Attendee Conduct Information

For security reasons, the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium badge will be required for admittance to all events. Please wear your badge so that it can be easily seen at all times. Lost badges should be reported to the Registration staff immediately. The following badge policies will be in effect throughout the Symposium:

1. The 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium badge is the sole property of the Symposium co-sponsors.
2. The badge is nontransferable.
3. False certification of individuals as paid Symposium attendees, misuse of badges, any method of assisting unauthorized persons to gain access to any Symposium event, or any inappropriate or unauthorized conduct will be just cause for repossessing badges of any individuals involved and expelling all parties involved from the Symposium without obligation on the part of the Symposium co-sponsors for refund of any fees.

In addition, individuals who are part of the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium may not engage in any demonstrations or other behavior that the Symposium co-sponsors deem to be potentially disruptive to the conduct of the Symposium. Violation of this rule is grounds for immediate dismissal from the Symposium and/or ineligibility for attendance at future ASCO symposia or meetings. Any person who is dismissed from the Symposium may request that the Symposium co-sponsors review the matter, provided, however, that such dismissal will be effective immediately and will continue until and unless the Symposium co-sponsors issue a contrary decision.

Cancellation Statement

The Symposium co-sponsors reserve the right to cancel the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium because of unforeseen circumstances. In the event of such cancellation, the full registration fee will be returned to each registrant.

Equal Opportunity Statement

The 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium is available without regard to race, color, sex, national origin, disability, age, or veteran status as provided by law and in accordance with the Symposium co-sponsors' respect for personal dignity.

Age Requirement for Attendees

Because of the detailed nature of the programs and forums, no one under the age of 18 will be admitted to any official Symposium function. This includes, but is not limited to, all Symposium sessions and the Exhibit Hall.

Recording (Audio, Video, and Still Photography)

Copyright of the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium program is owned by the American Society of Clinical Oncology. ASCO reserves the rights to all recordings or reproductions of presentations at this Symposium and all ASCO educational and scientific meetings.

Any photography, filming, taping, recording, or reproduction in any medium, including via the use of tripod-based equipment, of any of the programs and/or posters presented at the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium without the express written consent of the American Society of Clinical Oncology is strictly forbidden. Exception: Non-flash photography and audiotape recording using hand-held equipment, for strictly personal and noncommercial use, are permitted if not disruptive.

Attendees are encouraged to check 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium program materials for information about the availability of the 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium Virtual Meeting. Symposium-related publications for purchase will be available at the ASCO exhibit table in the Golden Gate Hall on Friday, March 5 2010 and Saturday, March 6, 2010 only.

Smoking

Smoking is prohibited in all 2010 Genitourinary Cancers Symposium facilities, including public areas and the Exhibit Hall. This policy will be enforced.
