Who can submit a nomination?

Anyone can submit a nomination. Nominations must be submitted by a colleague with personal knowledge of the nominee’s mentoring activities.

Nominators who are an ASCO member can submit online at http://wwcc.secure-platform.com/. It’s SSO so they can sign in using their asco.org login account.

Nominations can also be sent by email. Nominators must provide answers to the required questions in the nomination form and submit the required supporting documentation.

Who can be nominated?

Nominees must be female and an ASCO member. They do not have to be physicians.

I’m a Fellow/Trainee. Can I submit a nomination for my mentor? Do I still need to submit 2 letters of recommendation from mentees?

Yes, and yes. As the nominator you need to answer the required questions. You need to ask two mentees other than yourself to provide a letter of recommendation.

Is there a page limit for the letter of recommendation?

Each letter of recommendation must be no more than 2 pages. The letter should explain the qualities that the mentor possessed, the behaviors she exhibited to be considered an "outstanding" mentor and the demonstrated impact on the mentee’s academic and/or professional development. Please be as specific and detailed as possible. It is also helpful to provide specific anecdotes and examples.
Is there a character or word limit for the responses to questions?

None.

The nominee’s CV is limited to 5 pages. The person I’m nominating has an extensive CV. What should I include in her CV?

Include information that demonstrates the nominee’s mentoring accomplishments. You don’t have to include the nominee’s publication history.

Can multiple people submit a nomination for the same person?

Yes.

Can the nominator work with the nominee in completing the nomination and putting together the supporting documentation?

Yes.

I submitted a nomination in the past. Can I submit the nomination again?

Yes. Please review the nomination questions and provide answers.
