Advocate of the Year: Ray Page, DO, PhD, FACOI

As a dedicated volunteer and member of the Government Relations Committee, Dr. Page participates in all facets of ASCO advocacy – from visits on Capitol Hill with lawmakers and regulatory agencies to engaging with district staff at home in Texas and at his practice through regular site visits. Dr. Page volunteers much of his time to ASCO through these activities and also represents ASCO at the AMA House of Delegates.

President’s Circle

ASCO advocates who regularly participate in more than one of these advocacy activities: virtual advocacy (sending ACT Network emails); in person advocacy (conducting visits on Capitol Hill, with agency officials or at home in the congressional districts); engaging in grasstops advocacy (email/phone call with legislative staff, speaking on behalf of ASCO at briefings or providing hearing testimony, hosting lawmakers and staff for site visits at their practice locations)
