

2021 State Legislative Session Calendar

All 50 states are planning to convene this year for their state legislative sessions, whether doing so virtually, in-person, or a combination of the two. While each state has a start date, some of the end dates will depend on how quickly they get through their agenda and are not yet determined. If you have any questions about any of these dates or other key state deadlines, please contact Aaron Segel at aaron.segel@asco.org.
